SENATE REJECTS AMENDMENT TO FOUR POWER TREATY

Vote Is 55—30 Against Proposal for Non-Signatory Powers to Benefit—With 11 Senators Out, Advocates Fail of Two-Thirds, and Opponents of One-Third, of Membership.

4 DEMOCRATS VOTE WITH REPUBLICANS

Lenroot, in Debate Preceding Roll Call, Suggests That President Might Get People's Opinion if Pact Fails of Ratification.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—In its first roll call on any issue of the four-power treaty fight, the Senate rejected today the amendment of Senator Robinson, Democrat of Arkansas, designed to extend the benefits of the treaty to non-signatory nations whose interests are affected. The amendment was defeated, 55 to 30.

Four Republicans, Borah, France, Johnson and LaFollette, supported the amendment and four Democrats, Pomeroy, Hiram, Underwood and Williams, voted in the negative. With 11 votes of the full membership cast, the treaty opponents fell short of mustering a one-third of the treaty proponents fell short of having a two-thirds vote on the amendment. A two-thirds vote is necessary for the ratification of the treaty.

Supporters of the four-power pact today again took the offensive when the Senate resumed debate on the pact.

Senators McCumber of North Dakota and Lenroot of Wisconsin, both Republicans, led off for the ratification advocates, praising the treaty as a long step toward international understanding and as an integral part of the arms conference program. Senator Lenroot suggested that if ratification of this treaty failed, President Harding might consider withdrawing the others proposed by the conference and asking for a popular verdict on the whole subject at the November election.

Senator McCumber also declared the four-power arrangement was the key to the whole armament program, but asked what had become of the Republican campaign pledge of 1920 for an "association of nations" embracing the entire world in its scope.

Senator Lenroot's suggestion that withdrawal of the other treaties might be considered should the four-power pact fail, was made in connection with a reply to charges that the four-power agreement would lead the United States to use force. Not only was such an inference wholly unwarranted, he said, but the treaty constituted such an important step that its failure "may mean failure of all the treaties."

Effect of Rejection by U. S. "We know," said Lenroot, "that France is not enthusiastic over the naval treaty, and we can rest assured that the military party in Japan would not complain if all the treaties growing out of the Washington conference were rejected. If the nation that called the Washington conference shall be the first to reject one of the treaties, then it need be no surprise if other treaties are rejected by other Powers and the work of the Washington conference destroyed."

Suggestion of Vote of People. "So grave is the danger that if this treaty is rejected I believe President Harding, if he should receive information that other treaties would be rejected by other Powers, should consider the withdrawing of all the other treaties transmitted to the Senate and inform the other parties to the treaties that further action upon them will be postponed until the next Congress convenes so that

SENATE PAUSES TO LAUGH OVER GRAMMATICAL ERROR IN TREATY; LODGE DEFENDS IT

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The Senate paused for a laugh in the midst of the solemn treaty debate yesterday while Senator Ashurst of Arizona exhibited a grammatical error in its terms for which he declared "any school boy would be marked down." Senator Ashurst referred to the use of the word "between" instead of "among," when reference was made to the United States, Great Britain and France.

"If Arthur James Balfour and Henry Cabot Lodge don't know how to use the English language nobody does," said the Senator from Arizona, "and yet here in a solemn treaty we find this egregious blunder for which any school boy would be marked down."

"I don't say that by any means," rejoined Senator Lodge, "but I contend that the use of 'between' as referring to three or more persons is just as good as 'among'."

GIRL TRAVELING 9000 MILES TO WED FIANCE IN CHINA

Miss Mildred Keller of Buffalo, N. Y., departs for Seattle after a visit in Kirkwood. Miss Mildred Keller of Buffalo, N. Y., is traveling 9000 miles alone to be married to Holman Scott, formerly of Kirkwood, in China. She left St. Louis yesterday for Seattle, after a brief visit to Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Scott, of 135 Lafayette avenue, Kirkwood. She will sail from Seattle Saturday.

Scott, who has been for four years in the office of the Standard Oil Co. at Hongkong, met Miss Keller there last spring, while she was touring with a party of friends from Buffalo. Scott and Miss Keller became engaged before she left for America. They plan to return to St. Louis next year for a six months' stay.

Reduction, Understood to Be Between 25 and 50 Cents a Pair, Follows 10 Per Cent Wage Cut. BOSTON, Mass., March 14.—A reduction in the price of shoes was announced today by manufacturers of this city and the Old Colony district generally, comprising one of the largest men's shoe-making centers in the country.

Although authoritative announcement of the amount of the cut was lacking, it was understood to be between 25 and 50 cents a pair wholesale. A reduction of 10 per cent in wages affecting 21,000 workers in the district was announced last night by the State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration.

MANAGER IN CONNECTICUT HEARS ORCHESTRA AT SEA

Special to the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, March 14.—"Prospect 2096, please." "Who's calling?" A voice from the middle of the Atlantic Ocean answered, "I want Miss Anderson." The connection was made and the conversation commenced.

The voice had come by wireless from a ship to an amplifier on shore and the amplifier talked into the telephone and Miss Anderson talked back. It was a combination of wireless and land telephony. The ship was the America of the United States line.

William Rand, captain, called up the line's general manager, T. H. Roobottom, the same evening at his home in Sound Beach, Conn. He had the ship's orchestra entertain the general manager with selections.

EX-KAISER WANTS TO KNOW HOW OLD SCANDAL GOT OUT

Demands That Son and Princess Explain Airing of Family Secret That Had Long Been Guarded.

STORY FAMILIAR IN COURT CIRCLES

Former Emperor Had Always Taken Care to Cover Up Love Affairs of Daughter-in-Law and Baron.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

Copyright, 1922 by the Post-Dispatch and the New York World and the Post-Dispatch. BERLIN, March 14.—Prince and Princess Eitel Friedrich left Potsdam for Doorn, Holland, together yesterday. It is rumored that their departure is in response to a telegram from the former Kaiser demanding an explanation as to how the long guarded secret of the scandal attached to the Princess' name in connection with Baron Plettenberg became public.

Germany is surprised at the sudden prominence given his old secret and only yesterday the newspapers, for the first time, mentioned that her name had been published abroad in connection with the divorce suit filed by Baroness Plettenberg at Duisburg two years ago.

Whether the Princess gave testimony in Potsdam in a closed hearing and what she said there, if she testified at all, will only be disclosed when the hearing takes place in Duisburg.

But one piece of evidence at the Potsdam hearing is unquestioned. A telephone operator in the Schloss Bellevue in the Tiergarten in Berlin, where Prince Eitel Friedrich and his wife lived before the war, testified that Baron Plettenberg tried in vain to induce the Princess to receive his wife following his marriage. The operator declared the Baron on one occasion telephoned asking the Princess to meet him inside the Schloss, but ordered him to come to her at once. He did so, but brought his wife along, leaving her in an automobile at the entrance to the Schloss, while he entered alone.

The chief figure in this party, however, was 6-year-old Alice Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Bradley of Chicago. While her parents and the others of the party gathered round specimens and cold facts, she experienced a series of Alice-in-Wonderland adventures.

'BIG BILL' HAYWOOD GETS IRON WORKS CONCESSION IN RUSSIA

He Heads Group of American I. W. W.'s Who Will Operate Nadejdinsky Plant and Kosnetz Coal Mines.

By the Associated Press. MOSCOW, March 14.—William D. (Big Bill) Haywood heads a group of American I. W. W. men to whom Premier Lenin has granted a concession to operate the big Nadejdinsky Iron Works in the Ural Mountain region, part of the coal mines in the Kosnetz Basin and auxiliary factories.

(Haywood disappeared from the United States last year while under $65,000 bail after he and about 90 other I. W. W. men had been convicted of espionage and conspiracy against the Government in the war. He has since taken some part in the deliberation of the Third International at Moscow.)

It is stipulated that 4500 fully qualified American workers with a technical personnel shall be brought into Russia to operate the properties and that each of them must purchase $100 worth of tools or instruments for his own equipment and sign a promise to observe all the rules of the labor code.

The announcement states that the Government has assigned 300,000 acres toward financing the undertaking. It is also to provide wood to build homes for workers and assign 27,000 acres of land for agriculture. The American workers are to be organized in a trade union association.

The whole production of all these concessions is to go to the Government, which undertakes to supply the workmen with a ration and allow them part of the production as necessary means to carry on further work.

The agreement is to hold for two years. If the workmen desire to leave Russia earlier, the Government is to assist them to return to their country after they have handed over to the state the works and factories that had the installations and instruments brought from abroad.

Technicians Soon to Depart for Russia to Carry Out Deal.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 14.—H. S. Calvert, one of the men associated with William D. Haywood in obtaining a concession to operate an iron works and coal mines in Russia, says that a party of engineers and technicians will soon depart for Russia to prepare the way for 4500 American workmen. Calvert is a member of the I. W. W., and was formerly a foreman in the Ford automobile plant in Detroit. The others in the group of concessionaries, Calvert said, are Thomas Barker and D. Bayer, who are well known in I. W. W. circles in this country, but are now in Russia with Haywood, and C. J. Rutgers, a native of Holland who has been identified with the I. W. W. movement in the United States.

ALICE BACK FROM CONGO "WONDERLAND"

6-Year-Old Chicago Girl Member of Party Returning From African Big Game Region.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Carl E. Akely, big game hunter, African explorer, animal sculptor and taxidermist, returned yesterday on the steamship Baltic from his fourth expedition to the Belgian Congo, bringing back five huge gorilla skins to be mounted, innumerable camera shots and a wealth of new data for the American Museum of Natural History.

The chief figure in this party, however, was 6-year-old Alice Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Bradley of Chicago. While her parents and the others of the party gathered round specimens and cold facts, she experienced a series of Alice-in-Wonderland adventures.

Saw Pigmy Tribe of Africa. In the Congo belt west of Lake Nyanza, Victoria, she saw the pigmy tribe of Africa and they discovered her, the first white child they had ever seen. They considered her distinctly mature, however, for she was taller than the tallest member of the tribe.

"The chief," she could report with pride, "was very much surprised with my curls; he thought they came off."

Mrs. Bradley explained that the prevailing mode of coiffure among the pigmy people led to this conclusion. She participated in the phenomenon of her daughter with intense curiosity.

So far as known, no white woman had ever been to the inner reaches of the Belgian Congo, where the trail of the expedition led. Akely, maintaining perfect health throughout the journey, was reported by his nurse, Miss Priscilla Hall, to be an irrefragable source of constant apprehension.

Saw Lions Shot in Jungle. She watched in spellbound delight while lion, known to most children only in the relative docility of the circus cage, were shot with other inhabitants of the jungle. Of the 45 gorilla trophies selected to be brought home, one stood five feet eight inches in height. His chest measured nearly five feet and he weighed 350 pounds.

Miss Martha Miller, Prof. Akely's secretary, also one of the party, seemed tender-hearted about the gorillas, unless one caught the suspicious twinkle in her brown eyes.

Bradley is a lawyer. Mrs. Bradley (Mary Hastings Bradley) a novelist and special writer for a Chicago newspaper. She participated in the hunting and bagged two gorillas and several lions. Miss Miller likewise brought down a lion or two.

TELLS HOW GAS MANTLE TRUST PUT UP ST. LOUIS PRICE

Witness Before U. S. Grand Jury That Returned Indictments, Compares Increase at St. Paul and Baltimore.

ANTITRUST LAW VIOLATION CHARGED

Alleged Defendants Obtained 100 Pct. Monopoly of Incandescent Lamp Business in More Than 200 Cities.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Ragland Monand, vice president of the Pressure Lighting Co. of 129 Liberty street, who was a witness before the Federal grand jury, which has indicted the alleged gas mantle trust, said yesterday that "the trust is at present trying to jack the price in Brooklyn up from $12 a year each for 12,000 street lamps to $15.20 each." So far the public officials have refused to agree to the advanced figure. At St. Paul, he said, the trust increased its price on 5000 street lamps from $10 to $15.50; at St. Louis it increased it from $12 to $16.84 on 24,000 lamps, and at Baltimore it increased from $10 to $14.60 on 13,000.

The indictment, unveiled yesterday, accuses three corporations and eight individuals alleged to be connected with these corporations, of having been guilty of criminal violation of the Sherman antitrust law.

List of Those Indicted. Those named as defendants are: The United Gas Improvement Co. of Philadelphia and Samuel Taylor Bodine, president; Randall Morgan, vice president; and William Findlay Brown, for many years an attorney for the company, and now first assistant District Attorney of Philadelphia.

The Weisbach Co. of New Jersey, and Sidney Mason, president. The Cities Illuminating Co., Inc., of 26 Exchange place, and Eugene S. Newbold, president, and Arthur E. Shaw, vice president.

Charles Patterson of the Patterson Street Lighting Co. of St. Paul and Minneapolis. George M. Landers, president of Landers, Frary & Clark, manufacturers of fixtures of New Britain, Conn.

Newbold also is vice president of the Weisbach Street Lighting Co., of which Shaw also is president. The company, which is connected with the Weisbach company, is not named as a defendant in the indictment. Brown, it was stated here, also is a director in the Cities Illuminating Co., Inc.

It is alleged that the defendants obtained a 100 per cent monopoly of the incandescent gas lamp business in more than 200 cities.

Some of the practices charged against them follow:

Securing control of patents relating to their industry with a view to excluding their competitors from the use of such patents.

Acquiring and combining competing companies and excluding them from competition.

Instituting unwarranted and vexatious litigation against competitors for the purpose of intimidating them into discontinuing competition.

Entering collusive bids for the purpose of deceiving public officials into believing that they were obtaining bona fide competition.

Secretly purchasing control of competing companies.

Concealing and denying ownership for the purpose of deceiving public officials and securing excessive prices.

Circulating misleading, false and defamatory reports concerning competition.

Incorporating other companies and maintaining them ostensibly as competitors with a view to concealing the operations of the trust.

CUNLIFF SAYS MILLER'S SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IS NOT CONVINCING

Opinion Formed After Conference Over Charge of Immorality in Schools.

PARENTS' COMMITTEE WILL TAKE UP MATTER TONIGHT

Place of Assembly Not Yet Announced, but Testimony Will Be Gone Over—Miller Said to Be Willing to Offer More Definite Evidence if Given Time.

A summary prepared by Victor J. Miller, president of the Police Board, of evidence as to his recent charge of the existence of an immoral club or clubs in Soldan High School, was declared "unconvincing" by Charles Cunliff, chairman of the parents' investigating committee, today. Miller was in conference with Cunliff and Judge William Dee Becker of the St. Louis Court of Appeals, a member of the committee, for three hours last night at Cunliff's home, 15 Windermere place.

Cunliff said that much of Miller's matter was based on hearsay, and that some information was taken from police reports. He said Miller presented nothing tangible or specific to support his concrete charge as to the existence of any immoral organization, such as he described in his public address at King's Highway Christian Church last Thursday night.

The entire committee of parents is to meet tonight, and will consider the matter presented by Miller, so far as it has been placed in written form. Miller has asked for a few days to prepare a part of the matter. It is expected that the committee will go over the written matter, and will call upon Miller for any explanations or verifications needed.

Meeting Place Not Announced. The members of the committee are Cunliff, who is head of the Soldan Patrons' Association; Judge Becker, Mrs. J. A. Krebs, president of the Soldan Mothers' Club; Dr. M. G. Seelig and Mrs. M. G. Gorin. The place of tonight's meeting has not been announced.

Cunliff said, regarding last night's meeting:

"Mr. Miller brought a number of papers bearing on the subject. They consist for the most part of statements made to him by different parties, but need verifying. It would require two years to trace all the information he spoke of to its source. He did not leave any papers with us, but he read from a typewritten statement which he wished to prove. He offered considerable information, but none in affidavit form. One source of information to which he attached great importance appeared to me to be unreliable, and I so informed Mr. Miller."

Not all the things he mentioned related to Soldan High School. He also mentioned other schools. A good deal of the matter appeared to be based on police reports, and there were some instances as to cases of intoxication of high school students.

"What he gave us was unconvincing and much of it appeared to be hearsay, and we told him that what we wanted was evidence in affidavit form or supported by witnesses—evidence that would stand up in court."

Affidavits Are Promised. "The committee is positive that Mr. Miller will give every assistance possible so that the truth or falsity of these reports may be shown, and he promised to furnish affidavits some time this week."

"Mr. Miller feels very much the scandal which he did not intend nor expect to cause and probably suffers more than anybody else from the revelations growing out of his speech. He feels that if what he has done would save one girl from a life of shame he will have been amply repaid for what he suffers."

"Did you ask Mr. Miller what proof he had of his statement that the entrance requirement of which was an immoral action?" Cunliff was asked.

"Yes," he answered, "we discussed his charges, and he said he had proof which he would submit later. He gave us nothing tangible or specific."

Dr. Rachelle Yarros Denies That Coeducation Is a Failure.

Dr. Rachelle Yarros of Hull House, Chicago, who is making a series of talks to mothers, spoke before a large meeting arranged by the Council of Jewish Women at Hotel Statler yesterday.

"Coeducation is not a failure," she said. "It is the home which is neglecting its job. There are more morality problems in Europe, where coeducation has never existed, than here." She advised that committees

SCHOOL AFFAIR GIVES POLITICIANS CHANCE AT MILLER

Republican Party Workers Have Been Waiting for Such an Opportunity for More Than Year.

HASN'T PLAYED GAME
TO SUIT LEADERS

Police Board Head, However,
Has Backers in Several Church and Women's Organizations.

While a number of religious and women's organizations have come to the front in defense of President Miller of the Board of Police Commissioners, in the controversy arising out of his recent charge that an immoral club of boys, and, as Miller was informed, a similar club of girls, existed at Soldan High School, the practical politicians are taking advantage of the situation in an effort to accomplish their desire of having him removed from office.

For more than a year the practical politicians have been awaiting an opportunity to present objections other than political to the Governor against Miller.

Miller, as is known, was appointed by Gov. Hyde out of personal friendship and over the protest of the Republican organization in St. Louis. He was confirmed by the Senate without opposition from the St. Louis Senators, although they said at the time they were convinced "he wouldn't do."

Some of Miller's "offenses." There has been constant conflict between him and the practical politicians since he has been in office. He issued orders curbing the power of the politician to obtain the release of a friend or supporter who had been arrested. He refused to sign the politicians in making appointments of policemen, and last, but not least in the view of the politicians, the regular weekly police game at the Claridge Hotel, participated in by Republican officials, was waived.

The politicians determined to "get Miller," but they found Gov. Hyde not amenable to the demands of the organization politics. So naturally they awaited some situation which was without the element of politics. They eagerly thought the occasion had arisen when Miller became involved in a controversy with the American Legion several months ago over the number of former soldiers engaged in criminal practices. They are satisfied now it has come.

Among those who called at the Planter Hotel while the Governor was there this week were Chairman Strodtman of the Republican City Committee, Mayor Kiel, and State Senators Anderson and Blodgett. Chairman Clements of the Republican State Committee, was with the Governor nearly all the time he was in St. Louis.

Letter Defending Miller. In defense of Miller a letter made public today was signed by the Rev. William H. Lemp, pastor of West Presbyterian Church; Mrs. Louis J. Brooks, head of the Board of Religious Organizations; Mrs. Charles G. Passmore, Mrs. Maurice Seim, and Ben Larrabee, H. L. Salisbury, Mrs. J. Hanley Caldwell and the Rev. P. R. Hoot, pastor of Chouteau Place Methodist Church. This letter stated the signers had heard some of Miller's evidence and believed it sufficient to warrant a thorough investigation. It urged that the matter should be diverted from a personal attack on Miller.

Larrabee and Salisbury, two of the signers, are officers of Masonic organizations, but it was stated today that they signed only in their individual capacity and that the Masonic bodies have not taken up the matter.

The St. Louis Presbytery, at its monthly meeting at Second Presbyterian Church, adopted resolutions questioning that Miller not resign until a complete investigation had been made, and requesting the Governor to support Miller until the facts are made known.

Views of Religious Workers. A group of religious workers signed a letter said to represent the views of 60 persons who met at the headquarters of the Board of Religious Organizations, asking the Governor to exercise great care in any action against Miller, and stating in their opinion the good he had done in the Police Department far outweighed any harm which could result from his remarks about alleged conditions in the schools. This letter was signed by Mrs. A. J. Schumann, Mrs. W. C. Crain, Mrs. L. G. Bantz, Mrs. R. A. Sanders, Mrs. A. L. Wells, Mrs. H. G. Gibson, Mrs. A. L. Meyer, Mrs. D. Groves, Mrs. L. L. Renfrow, Mrs. C. W. Gregory and Mrs. Oliver S. Jones.

TEN PERSONS KILLED IN STORM AT GOWEN, OKLA.

Nine Others Lose Lives at Other Places in South and Southwest.

By the Associated Press. GOWEN, Okla., March 14.—Ten persons are dead, 24 are seriously injured and many more slightly injured as a result of a tornado that struck this small mining town early last night. The tornado swept a path a mile and a half long and about 400 yards wide through the town and destroyed about 20 homes.

Hardly a house in the town escaped damage. The Pentecost and Baptist churches were destroyed, while the Catholic church was badly damaged. Relief parties from near-by towns soon arrived and the sufferers were reported today to have been taken care of by the Red Cross Society of Wilburton.

Two Mexican children, whose home was destroyed, were found in a tree top, alive and unscratched, after the storm. At the Reece Null home, the kitchen was unroofed and the walls collapsed, but a basket of eggs was not damaged, examination showing that not one had been cracked.

The dead include: George Glenbo, Rena Glenbo, 15 years; Annie Glenbo, 13; Mrs. Lucile Leamy and Mrs. Clifford Wilkerson and baby.

By the Associated Press. PINE BLUFF, Ark., March 14.—Six negroes were killed and several white persons were injured in a tornado which passed through the northern part of this county early today. The storm passed through northeastern Jefferson and southeastern Lonoke counties about 1 a. m., wrecking farm houses and buildings, according to passengers arriving on a train from the storm section this morning. Wires in the storm area are down.

The settlement of Gethsemane, near the Lonoke County line, was a scene of the worst damage. Bodies of six negroes had been found in the wreckage there up to 9 a. m.

Prominent People See Harry Greb
Beat Tom Gibbons in New York for Chance at Dempsey.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 14.—Harry Greb, a young man from Pittsburgh, had a coming-out affair at Madison Square Garden last night. Thomas Gibbons, a St. Paul youth, attempted to interfere with the success of Greb's debut in metropolitan society, but he merely showed how the Pittsburgh man could perform before a large and select company.

The men, light-heavyweight pugilists by profession, were billed in advance as staging their meeting as a prelude to the better man entering into active relations with Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world. After last night's social affair, attended by the flower of this city's smarter set, there was not much talk of either man being sent into the ring to give Dempsey a Roman holiday. Not in many months has a crowd of more cosmopolitan make-up or more social prominence witnessed two athletes swinging gloves at each other. The garden was simply a mass of social leaders, bankers and policemen, and a list of those present would read like the social register.

Greb was acclaimed the winner because he used both hands in windmill attack, while Gibbons depended upon finesse for his points.

A technical account of the fight will be found on the sporting page of the Post-Dispatch today.

MRS. OBENCHAIN 'HAD NO REGARD FOR LOVE'

Prosecutor Before Jury in Murder Case Discusses Defendant's Relations With Three Men.

By the Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 14.—Arguments in the case of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, on trial charged with the murder of her admirer, J. Belton Kennedy, are in progress.

Charles W. Fricke, Deputy District Attorney, opened for the State yesterday, dwelling on the defendant's relations with Kennedy, Arthur C. Burch of Evanston, Ill., her co-defendant, and Ralph R. Obenchain of Chicago, her former husband and now one of her counsel.

He declared Mrs. Obenchain had used Obenchain as a "human door-mat," that she had "no regard, love, affection, respect or anything else for the love of any man," and that she had married Obenchain "only because she wanted some one to take care of her."

"Apparent He Was Hypnotized." Fricke argued, in referring to the testimony given by Obenchain for her former wife, "that it was apparent he was hypnotized, blindfolded and infatuated by this defendant," and that he "continued to do anything she said."

Mrs. Obenchain's testimony was completed yesterday afternoon, the defense called only one more witness and the prosecution confined its rebuttal to the testimony of one witness, Mrs. J. D. Kennedy, mother of the slain man.

Mrs. Kennedy testified Miss M. L. Wilson, proprietor of a "beauty parlor," told her on July 31, 1921, "Your son is going to die; you are going to cry."

Miss Wilson testified for the defense that Kennedy and Mrs. Obenchain communicated with each other through her. She died she made the statement to which Mrs. Kennedy testified.

H. S. Hahler, a private detective, testified he recently drove an automobile from Los Angeles to Long Beach and back, the speedometer reading being 43.3 miles. The prosecution had shown that the speedometer reading on a car driven by Arthur C. Burch, co-defendant in the case, on the night of the slaying, was 44 miles. There was no testimony that Burch was in Long Beach.

With First Statement. Deputy District Attorney Asa Keyes took up the cross-examination at the point in Mrs. Obenchain's testimony where it was stopped Friday by adjournment. She clung to her previous statement that it was Kennedy, and not she, as the State contends, who suggested the trip to Beverly Glen, where Kennedy's cottage was.

Keyes referred frequently to a written statement said to have been made by Mrs. Obenchain to the District Attorney the day following the slaying. Mrs. Obenchain reiterated her earlier declaration that, while she did not mean to say she never had made such a statement, that she had no remembrance of it, and did not even remember having been in the District Attorney's office on the day in question.

With considerable hesitancy, and after repeated questioning, Mrs. Obenchain told of stopping George Deering, a passing motorist, after Kennedy was shot, of asking him if there was a telephone or a doctor in the Glen, and also of later meeting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Besant, and of telling them that Kennedy had been "seriously hurt."

Lucky Penny Story Unbroken. The State failed in its effort to break down Mrs. Obenchain's story of the hiding of the lucky penny near the cabin, which she said they were seeking.

Keyes and Mrs. Obenchain in great detail over the events surrounding the shooting of Kennedy. She testified that he had a gun in his hand when he got out of the automobile, and also when he reached the top of the steps where the shooting occurred.

Mrs. George Baptiste, at Divorce Hearing, Says Husband Frequently Exercises Upon Her.

The public impression that George Baptiste, for many years an undefeated wrestler in St. Louis, had retired from the mat, is being challenged in the Court of Domestic Relations by his wife, Mrs. Nettie Baptiste of 5214 Waterman avenue.

She declared yesterday, in her divorce suit, that since 1916 Baptiste has maintained the vigor of his head locks, full nostrils, arm locks and flying falls by increasingly frequent exercise upon her.

"Played for Neck Holds." He played for neck holds, particularly, Mrs. Baptiste declared. On one occasion, she related, he took a neck and arm hold because she asked him to take her riding in one of his three automobiles. On another, she said, he got an arm lock at the breakfast table and followed it up till she dropped a teacup.

"Didn't you drop it on George's head?" his attorney inquired. Mrs. Baptiste said she dropped it to the floor.

Again, she testified, he swung her about the garage until she felt like a mat or a mop. A neighbor described this hold as a neck and body hold.

The family laundress, a negro, who usually was at work in the basement when Baptiste began his morning training, rose from the witness stand and described the sounds that came from above by scraping her feet as vigorously as she could.

"It was shuffle, shuffle, shuffle," she said.

When she arrived one morning, she said, Baptiste had his wife by the neck and was swinging her around, singing at the top of his voice: "Let the rest of the world go by."

Sang Considerable Also. Baptiste has a big barrel chest and, it appears, kept his wind up broken with the free exercise of song. Mrs. Baptiste said that when she and her husband were not engaged in wrestling at his suggestion, they were putting their voices against one another, often in argument, which invariably terminated when her husband tried to drown her out by taking a full lungful of air and bursting into melody. When he quit singing and returned to argument, she said, she adopted his tactics and tried to sing down his words. When she was sung out, George would resume, and so it went until he decided to shift to wrestling.

Frequently in the morning, she said, she would be awakened by a great burst of song from the bathroom.

Keyes referred frequently to a written statement said to have been made by Mrs. Obenchain to the District Attorney the day following the slaying. Mrs. Obenchain reiterated her earlier declaration that, while she did not mean to say she never had made such a statement, that she had no remembrance of it, and did not even remember having been in the District Attorney's office on the day in question.

With considerable hesitancy, and after repeated questioning, Mrs. Obenchain told of stopping George Deering, a passing motorist, after Kennedy was shot, of asking him if there was a telephone or a doctor in the Glen, and also of later meeting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Besant, and of telling them that Kennedy had been "seriously hurt."

Lucky Penny Story Unbroken. The State failed in its effort to break down Mrs. Obenchain's story of the hiding of the lucky penny near the cabin, which she said they were seeking.

Keyes and Mrs. Obenchain in great detail over the events surrounding the shooting of Kennedy. She testified that he had a gun in his hand when he got out of the automobile, and also when he reached the top of the steps where the shooting occurred.

WOMAN ORDERED HELD IN CASE OF MAN KILLED AT HOTEL

Mrs. Bertha Baker Figures in Coroner's Verdict of Homicide—Man Companion Released on Bond.

A coroner's verdict of homicide, holding Mrs. Bertha Baker of the Normandie Hotel for the death of William T. Dixon of the Arlington Hotel Sunday, was returned following an inquest today. Dixon was fatally shot by Mrs. Baker during a quarrel, at Dixon's hotel, according to the story she subsequently told the police.

George T. Frank, 25 years old, 4256A Easton avenue, was held as an accessory before the fact. He was with Mrs. Baker at the time of the shooting.

Mrs. Baker is held without bail and Frank was released under bond of $2500. Mrs. Baker and Frank did not testify at the inquest, but written statements they made to the police, were placed in the coroner's record. Mrs. Baker in her statement to police said she shot Dixon after he had struck her, while they were in a room alone.

room. She said that usually the songs had an immoral text. She decided one morning, she said, to let him know how the songs sounded and joined in the chorus. Baptiste emerged from the bathroom, she said, with a soaped sponge and tried to wash out her mouth.

Boxing Also on Repertoire. In response to a question by his attorney, Mrs. Baptiste admitted that on this occasion she introduced boxing to their repertoire.

Baptiste, on the witness stand, said his domestic troubles began on Easter day of 1916. On that occasion, he said, his father, stepmother and sister came for dinner, at his home. As they came up the front steps, he said, Mrs. Baptiste sent him out for ice cream and when he returned a few minutes later she was chasing his relatives out of the house with a butcher knife.

Nearly every morning in 1916 he found a newspaper clipping about a divorce suit beneath his breakfast plate and sometimes he found them sticking in mirrors on his dressing table.

Things reached a climax in 1926, he said, when his wife was elected president of the women's auxiliary of the Awning and Tent Makers' Association. She tried to make a speech at a banquet, he said, and when he later informed her that she was no William Jennings Bryan she bought a lot of books on elocution and from then on he had to cook his own meals.

Mrs. Baptiste is asking alimony and declares that her husband, who is president of the Baptiste Tent and Awning Co., is wealthy. A neighbor testified that Baptiste once confided to her that he was worth $200,000. The son of a candy manufacturer testified that Baptiste recently had loaned his father $28,000.

LATE CROWDS SWAMP INCOME TAX OFFICES

Internal Revenue and Assessor's Staffs Will Be Kept on Late Hours Tonight.

Offices of the Collector of Internal Revenue, in the Federal Building, and the City Assessor, in the City Hall, were overcrowded today by persons desiring to make tax returns on their 1921 incomes. Tomorrow is the last day on which returns can be filed without penalty for delinquency.

The Federal office will remain open until 10 o'clock tonight and later tomorrow night if necessary. The Assessor's office will remain open until 9 o'clock tonight and tomorrow night.

At 8:30 a. m., half an hour before the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue was open, the second-floor corridors of the Federal building, on the Eighth street and Locust street sides, where the office is located, were jammed with persons waiting to make Federal tax returns and at 9:30 the augmented force of clerks was swamped. In contrast with yesterday's crowd, when women predominated, today's crowd was mostly men.

Assessor's Office Crowded. The City Assessor's office, where State income tax returns are made, was likewise a beehive of industry. Extra clerks were pressed into service to handle the crowds which began to arrive before the office was opened for the day.

Federal income tax returns must be accompanied with a payment of at least 25 per cent of the entire amount of the tax due. The penalty for failing to make a return and partial payment before midnight tomorrow is an addition of 25 per cent to the tax, which becomes payable immediately in full.

The State income tax is not payable until between May 1 and June 1, but failure to make return before midnight tomorrow subjects the delinquent to a fine.

$525 IN PRIZES FOR THE BEST RHYMES

A new contest is just being started which will interest every woman and girl who reads this paper. Any woman or girl can enter this contest—anyone can win! All it is necessary to do is to write a 4-line rhyme on Dr. Price's Baking Powder, using only the words which appear either on the label of the Dr. Price can (front and back) or on the printed slip which is found in each Dr. Price's can.

Isn't that easy? Everyone likes to make rhymes, and here is a chance to spend a fascinating hour or two writing rhymes on this popular Baking Powder and perhaps winning a substantial prize for your efforts.

50 CASH PRIZES
For the rhyme selected as best a prize of $100 will be given; for the second, third and fourth best rhymes prizes of $50, $30 and $25, respectively will be given. And besides these prizes there will be 50 prizes of $5 each for the next 50 best rhymes. With such a long list of prizes as these, it would be a pity not to try your hand at it!

Here is a 4-line rhyme as an example:
Two teaspoons of this powder make
Biscuits, muffins, pie or cake,
The Price's Co. guarantee
No alum in the cans to be.

As Dr. Price's Baking Powder sells for only 25 cents a 12-oz. can at grocery stores, some rhymes could play up the remarkable economy of this pure and wholesome baking powder which contains no alum.

All rhymes must be received by May 1, 1934. Only words appearing either on the label of the Dr. Price can (front and back) or on the printed slip contained inside the can may be used. These words may be used as often as desired, but no other words will be allowed. If you haven't a can of Dr. Price's, a copy of the label and the printed slip will be sent to you free upon request.

Any woman or girl may enter the contest, but only one rhyme from each person will be considered. In case of ties, the full amount of the prize will be given to each tying contestant. Write plainly on only one side of a sheet of paper and be sure to give your name and address.

Send your rhyme before May 1st to Price Baking Powder Factory, 1011 Independence Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

ALLEGED TO HAVE DEFRAUDED INVESTORS OUT OF MILLION

Federal Jury to Investigate Case Against Seymour J. Cox of Houston, Tex.

By the Associated Press.

HOUSTON, Tex., March 14.—The case of Seymour J. Cox, Houston promoter, arrested in New York last night, alleged to have defrauded investors out of $1,000,000 through the sale of worthless oil stocks, will be laid before the Federal grand jury here now in session. His bond has been fixed at $25,000.

F. H. Black, postal inspector, said that Cox is alleged to have used the mails to send out circulars, photographs and statements which were fraudulent, in connection with the promotion of the General Oil Co., Cox Realization Companies, and S. E. J. Cox Co.

Cox and the General Oil Co., which he promoted, have been the center of numerous court litigations. Apparently in the midst of prosperity, and while Cox was in France entering his airplanes in the race for the James Gordon Bennett trophy, the General Oil Co. was put into the hands of a receiver and Cox was enjoined from acting as president of the company. New trustees were appointed.

At about the same time, creditors of the General Oil Co., a $20,000,000 stock company, filed bankruptcy proceedings against the company. Judge Hutchison found the company was "not insolvent," and for a time the General Oil Co. progressed under the receiver.

Recently Judge Monteith denied a petition of certain Chicago creditors asking that the property of the General Oil Co. be sold at auction. Judge Monteith held it would not be fair to the stockholders.

ADMITS ROBBING SALOON WHERE HE WAS RECENTLY EMPLOYED

John Hogan, 24 years old, of 814 North Eighth street, a negro porter formerly employed in the saloon of Fernando Baldetti, in the Title Guaranty Building, 706 Chestnut street, confessed to the police last night having robbed the saloon early Monday and in a signed statement told of two other burglaries he and a white man had committed. The white man was arrested, but denied connection with any of the robberies.

In his statement, Hogan said he was discharged from the Baldetti saloon last Wednesday because a pack of cigarettes disappeared. He and the white man, he said, went to the place early Monday and he served as "lookout" while the white man broke open a door and went inside. He said he was given $25.00, and some cigarettes and cigars as his share of the loot. The money, he named, in a sack identified by Baldetti as having been taken together with some of the cigarettes and cigars, was found by the police in Hogan's room.

In the confession, Hogan also said

CLAYTON SCHOOLS ACCREDITED WITH NEW HEALTH RECORD

Demonstrations, Officers Say. Show Pupils Have Best Teeth of Any So Far Examined.

Children of the Clayton schools have been found to have the best teeth, taking the entire school population into consideration, of any school district in Missouri in which school health demonstrations have been conducted. Superintendent of Schools Morton says. A health demonstration in the Clayton schools was conducted last week by the St. Louis County Committee of the Tuberculosis Society, in which about 600 children were weighed, measured and physically examined.

The excellent teeth found among these children is believed to be due to the frequent tooth brush drills required in all the schools by Supt. Morton, and to the desire on the part of the children to present perfect "chore" cards to the teachers in the modern health crusade work. One of the "chore" in this health crusade is brushing the teeth regularly, and another is eating the right food. The St. Louis County Tuberculosis Committee yesterday started the second in the school health demonstrations in the present series in the county in the Normandie school district, where 1000 children are to be weighed, measured and physically examined.

RECEIVER NAMED FOR THE LOGEMAN MANUFACTURING CO.

H. Charles Judge yesterday was appointed by Circuit Judge Hall as receiver for the Logeman Manufacturing Co., 1601-09 North Tenth street. Petition for a receiver had been filed by the Mellon Realty Co. on a claim of $2956 for rent. The Mellon company owns the premises occupied by the defendant.

The petition stated that the Logeman concern has orders in excess of $100,000 and assets of over $40,000, but because of judgments amounting to $6000 against it there was danger that executions would be levied and the business destroyed as a going concern unless a receiver was appointed to handle affairs until normal conditions come back.

Judge was appointed on recommendation of William F. Woerner and Albert Chandler, attorneys for the interested parties. The company agreed to the receivership.

GORGEOUS NEW DISPLAY AT BOTANICAL GARDEN

The Linnean House, Conceived by Henry Shaw, Dressed Up With Blooming Plants.

The Linnean house at the Missouri Botanical Garden, which was brought from disuse two years ago to shelter the remnants of the garden's collection of evergreens, now has been dressed up with blooming plants to such attractiveness that visitors no longer will find it profitable to pass by to the more gorgeous splendors of the floral display house.

The Linnean house is the only remaining display structure erected during the lifetime of Henry Shaw. He conceived it as a copy of English orangeries and above its central entrance placed a bust of Linnaeus, Swedish father of botany, flanked with busts of Dr. Asa Gray, American pere of the science, and the Englishman, Nuttall.

Neglected for Years.

For years it stood at the north extremity of the garden, cold and unbeckoning. When city smoke had blighted what once was one of the country's finest collections of evergreens to a mere handful of sickly shrubs and trees, the Linnean house was glassed over and the evergreens given sanctuary. There, in a delicate setting, they have been nursed back to semblance of vigor and now the sloping banks are radiant with flowers.

Azaleas, which were absent during the last Christmas season from most florist shops because of the Federal embargo on their importation, are in bloom there now. Camellias, the waxen-petaled beauties so favored by our grandmothers, but now rarely seen, are to be found also. Primulas (primroses), another forgotten favorite, strew the ground with pink, white, lavender and yellow. The South African heather has burst into myriads of dainty little white flowers as if inspired by the new gorgeousness of its surroundings.

All of the evergreens have disappeared from the garden's out-of-doors except that marvelous smoke-resister, the holly, but a beginning has been made indoors of restoring the collection. Two cedars of Lebanon are showing hardiness, and a pyramidal cypress from Florida is climbing its slender way toward the roof by leaps and bounds.

Shoot From Redwood Tree.

Poked away near the wall is a bush about three feet high, giving no visible token of its relationship to the mightiest of skyscrapers, the Western redwood. The little bush is a shoot from one of those 500-foot giants.

Another curious recent addition is the Peruvian "monkey puzzle," so called because it is said to be the only tree a monkey cannot climb. Its branches, which resemble a monkey's tail, are covered with short, cactus-like, triangular leaves each bearing a spear-like point which would more than simply puzzle a monkey or anything else attempting shines.

SON SEES FATHER DRINK POISON

Boy Says Family Trouble and Unemployment Caused Worry; Condition Serious.

Emil Koetter, 35 years old, of 4130A Natural Bridge avenue, called his 13-year-old son, Ralston, into the kitchen of their home yesterday afternoon, produced two bottles of poison from his pocket and poured the contents into a glass.

"This is the best way to end your troubles," he remarked and drained the glass. The son ran from the house and found a policeman. Koetter was unconscious by the time they returned. He was taken to the city hospital. The boy told the police his father worried because of separation from his wife, Lovada, who lives at 4254 Natural Bridge avenue, and because he had been unable to find work. Koetter's condition is serious.

ACID IN STOMACH
SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid Is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

INGROWN TOE NAILS

Nail Turns Out Itself if you Troughen Skin Underneath

A few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night. "Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug stores a tiny bottle containing directions.

DYE STOCKINGS SKIRT, SWEATER IN DIAMOND DYES

"Diamond Dyes" add years of wear to worn, faded skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, hangings, draperies, everything. Every package contains directions so simple any woman can put new, rich, fadeless colors into her worn garments or draperies even if she has never dyed before. Just buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then your material will come out right, because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to streak, spot, fade, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods.

MAN IS KILLED IN AUTO COLLISION AT GRAND AND SHAW

Herman Taveggia Suffers Fractured Skull and Two Other Men Are Injured When Car Is Overturned.

TRIED TO PASS MACHINE ON RIGHT

Space Proves to Be Too Narrow and Occupants Are Pinned Under Wreckage in Upset.

Herman Taveggia, 35 years old, of 5024 Fyler avenue, died at the city hospital at 7:40 last night from a fractured skull and other injuries suffered at 7 p. m., when an automobile driven by him was overturned in a collision with another automobile at Grand and Shaw avenues.

Martin Colombo, 45, of 3201 Market street, and Robert Wallace, 22, a negro, of 2925 Clark avenue, who were riding with Taveggia were cut and bruised.

Taveggia was driving north on Grand avenue in an automobile owned by Joseph Battifoli, 3201 Market street, and at Shaw avenue encountered an automobile driven by William B. Johnston Jr., 27, of 1817 Nebraska avenue, an automobile salesman. As Johnston turned north into Grand avenue from Shaw avenue, Taveggia attempted to pass him on the right side.

The space between Johnston's automobile and the east curbing on Grand avenue was not wide enough to permit the passage of the car driven by Taveggia and the latter car was overturned. In the collision which resulted Taveggia, Colombo and Wallace were pinned beneath the car.

Men Taken to Hospital. Johnston, with the aid of passing motorists, lifted the automobile and the injured men were removed to the city hospital. Johnston was required to give bond for his appearance at the coroner's inquest, although the police said that he was in no way responsible for the accident, as Taveggia was violating the traffic law in attempting to pass another automobile on the right, instead of the left, side.

Taveggia, who was employed as a foreman for the Granite Fire Clay Mines on Fyler avenue, is survived by his widow, Mrs. Julia Taveggia, and six children.

Mrs. Mary McIntyre, 77, of 609 North Garrison avenue, suffered a fractured skull and other injuries when she was knocked down by an automobile driven by Joseph Levin of 750 North Thirteenth street, East St. Louis, a tailor, at Grand and Franklin avenues at 8 p. m. yesterday.

Hymn Books Hurled at Pastor. By the Associated Press. DETROIT, Mich., March 14.—The Rev. M. C. Wright, pastor of the Ebenezer African M. E. Church here, was greeted with a shower of hymn books and other movable articles Sunday instead of the customary "Amen," when he arose to pray before his congregation. Warrants were charging assault and battery were sworn out by him against seven members of the congregation. The outbreak is said to have been the result of a split in the congregation concerning the minister's qualifications.

Damage Award Is State Record. KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 14.—An award of $75,000, said by attorneys to be the largest amount ever awarded in a Missouri court for personal injuries, was given to William

A. Stuart in the Circuit Court yesterday. The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad Co. was the defendant. Stuart, an engineer for the Rock Island, was injured in a head-on collision east of St. Joseph, Mo.

Mastin's Yeast Vitamon Tablets Greatest Beauty Secret Of All

For Firm Flesh and Clear Skin EASY AND ECONOMICAL TO TAKE

If you want to quickly clear your skin and complexion, put some firm, healthy flesh on your bones, and look and feel better simply try taking two of Mastin's tiny yeast VITAMON Tablets with each meal and watch results.

MASTIN'S VITAMON TABLETS contain a specially prepared form of not only yeast, but all three vitamins, true organic iron, and real lime salts, which Nature provides to build healthy tissue, strong muscle and rich, red blood.

They often banish pimples, boils and many skin eruptions; as if by magic, help strengthen the nerves, build up the body with firm flesh and increase energy and vigor. If you are thin, pale, haggard, drawn looking or lack energy and endurance you will find it worth while to make this simple test: First, weigh yourself and measure yourself. Next, take MASTIN'S VITAMON—two tablets with every meal. Then weigh and measure yourself again each week and continue taking VITAMON regularly until you are satisfied with your gain in weight and energy. It is not only a question of how much better you look and feel, or what your friends say and think—the scales and tape measure will tell their own story.

WARNING! No matter what anyone says, if you actually want to make more of the quick, certain results such as countless numbers have obtained you must insist upon the name MASTIN'S to get the Real VITAMON TABLETS. Be sure to see that the name MASTIN is on the package your druggist gives you, as it is only in this way can you protect yourself against cheap imitations, substitutes and so-called "yeast-vitamin tablets" which may often do more harm than good. All good druggists, such as

RAILROAD TO MOVE
$100,000 BUILDING
Missouri Pacific Won't Comply
With City's Request as to Carroll Street Structure.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad Co. would rather remove the $100,000 building it has erected extending over Carroll street west of Main street, than pay the city $60,000 for the privilege of keeping it there and reconstruct and maintain the Carroll street sewer at a cost of probably $10,000.

Following the discovery a few days ago that the building had been erected on the street, which had not been vacated by the city, the Board of Public Service fixed the terms on which it could remain there and the railroad company was notified. Today Director of Streets and Sewers Flisk received a letter from E. A.
Hadley, chief engineer of the Missouri Pacific, announcing that the company was unable to comply with the conditions and would proceed at once to remove the building.

The presence of the building was discovered when sewer inspectors went to Carroll street to investigate a cave-in. They found a one-story brick building 400 feet long and 45 feet wide standing across the 60-foot right of way of Carroll street, which is not improved at that point. Inquiry disclosed that it had been built by the Missouri Pacific as a car repair shop.

East and west streets to the north and south of Carroll street have been vacated, but Carroll street was retained to provide access to the mouth of the sewer at the foot of that street.

VOTERS WHO MOVED MUST TRANSFER FOR SCHOOL ELECTION

Registration Changes Must Be Made by Saturday at the City Hall.
Persons who have changed their residence since the last general election on Feb. 17, 1921, must have their registration entry transferred on the election books at the office of the Board of Election Commissioners at the city hall on or before Saturday in order to be eligible to vote in the school tax election of March 28. No transfer of address will be recorded after Saturday.

As is known, the proposition to be voted on at the special election is whether the present school tax rate of 85 cents on the $100 valuation shall be continued. The election is for taxpayers only and if the proposition to maintain the present rate is defeated the tax rate for school purposes will automatically revert to the old constitutional rate of 60 cents on the $100 valuation.
Under the Constitution and laws of Missouri a taxpayer is one who regularly pays general (real or personal) taxes, or one who regularly pays a merchant and manufacturer's tax, or one who pays a State income tax. Where State and city taxes are assessed against a man and his wife jointly, both are taxpayers.

dren More Than $250,000.
By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, March 14.—Charges that hundreds of companies in all parts of the country had been swindled out of more than $250,000 through a conspiracy to use the mails to defraud, were made in indictments returned against six individuals in Federal Court here yesterday. Those named were: John E. Brocklebank, Ellis C. Talmadge,
Mrs. Ellis C. Talmadge, Roman M.
Conger, George De Witt Talmadge and Orville Mattson, who, it is alleged, have been operating as the National Organization Co., with headquarters in Chicago. The indictments charge that the National Organization Co. advertised and sent circulars through the mails offering to organize various businesses into a common law trust.

ITCHING ECZEMA
DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Men-tho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ-destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.
It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.

Take Care of Your Cold

Guard against Grippe, "Flu" and Pneumonia—Rub Musterole on Throat, Chest and Back

Grippe, Influenza and treacherous Pneumonia all start with a cold, so guard against these dangers before your cold gets deeply seated.

At the first signs of a cold (which is just congestion) bring your circulation back to normal by rubbing Musterole on your throat, chest and back. Musterole is a counter-irritant which warms up the body quickly and sets the blood surging through the congested parts.

Remember the good old-fashioned mustard plaster that was grand mother's standby! Musterole has all of the good qualities of that messy old mustard plaster without the sting and blister.

Made of pure oil of mustard, campher, menthol and other simple ingredients, it penetrates the pores and goes straight to the seat of trouble.

During the "Flu" epidemic several years ago, Musterole was used in our army training camps and the Y.M.C.A.
War Board sent thousands of jars to our soldiers in France.

LADY GRIZZLY RESISTS LURE OF A GOOD MEAL

Zoo Attendants' Efforts to Get Her Out of Cage With Food Have Failed for Five Days.

The question at the zoo is when Mrs. Grizzly is going to get hungry enough to vacate her apartment for the sake of a square meal. She has been on short rations since last Thursday in an effort to starve her into submission to the will of her masters, but she is still holding out and getting madder every minute.

Mr. and Mrs. Grizzly have been occupying commodious quarters in the new bear pits. With the arrival last week of three more Russian brown bears, making a sizeable family of five, it was decided that they would show off to better advantage in the Grizzly quarters and the Grizzlies were notified to vacate.

Food Trap Outside Door.
The notification consisted in the withdrawal of rations until they were nice and hungry, followed by placing a portable crate against the door and placing a tempting repast in the cage. The siege began Thursday. By Saturday the male was hungry enough to take a chance. He entered the portable cage and the gate was slammed behind him. He got a good dinner, but was hauled away to the old quarters.

Negotiations with Mrs. Grizzly were continued, but she had seen what happened to her liege lord and she was not to be caught in the same trap. Deprived of the soothing society of her mate, she developed a temper and smashed things and bent the bars of the cage.

On Short Rations Five Days.

Five days have passed and the situation is unchanged. The old girl is getting only enough food to keep body and soul together, while in plain sight and smell a feast is spread and all that she has to do is to walk through the open gate into the crate prepared for her. Secretary Vierheller and eight men are bringing to bear, in addition, all kinds of persuasion, but the lady can't forget papa's roar of despair when he was borne away to an unknown fate and she will not enter in.

If she only knew it, the stay in the old quarters is to be brief and when the additional bear pits are completed the Grizzlies are to have a nice new apartment, but one of the hardest things that zoo people have to do is to explain things so that a Grizzly bear will understand.

Child Blown From Bed in Storm.By the Associated Press.

KENSETT, Ark., March 14.—The 12-days-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. T. Woods, residing a mile east of here, last night was blown from a bed on which it was lying, when a wind-storm blew down the Woods home, across the yard to a fence, where its clothing caught in the pickets and held suspended uninjured until the storm subsided. The child's parents were seriously hurt.

or sleeplessness

For a time she had been troubled with gas after her evening meal. The distress was most painful after eating potatoes or other starchy foods, of which she was very fond.

Then she started taking two cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every night between her evening meal and bedtime. She poured about a half cup of boiling hot water over the yeast cakes, stirred them thoroughly, added a little cold water and drank.

She found she could eat anything and sleep splendidly afterward. Thousands of men and women are finding that Fleischmann's Yeast corrects stomach and intestinal troubles. It promotes the flow of bile and pancreatic juice. Appetite is always kept normal and you are protected against indigestion.

Add 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your daily diet. You will find that your whole digestive system is greatly benefited. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

Writing of New Constitution
Probably Will Take Four Months
And Cost in Excess of $100,000*Present Instrument Was Completed in Less Than 3 Months and Cost $40,000—Next Is Likely to Be More Voluminous.

This is the fourth and last article in a series that Assistant Attorney-General Otis, has written expressly for the Post-Dispatch on defects in the present Missouri Constitution which he holds should be cured or eliminated from the new organic law that is to be framed by the convention that will meet in May and the delegates for which were chosen at a special election last January.

By MERRILL E. OTIS,
Assistant Attorney-General of Missouri.

How long the constitutional convention of 1922 will remain in session is a question that cannot, of course, definitely be answered. In the amendment authorizing a convention no time limit is set. It will have the legal right to continue its deliberations, with or without periods of temporary adjournment, so long as it may choose, unless, indeed, the people by another amendment to the Constitution should terminate its work. Recent conventions in other states, notably that of Illinois, have remained in session for long periods. However, the consensus of opinion is that the convention of 1922 will complete its labors within four months. It is said that one delegate has suggested that the convention meet, pass a resolution in endorsing the Constitution of 1875, and on the same day adjourn.

Written in Less Than 3 Months.

The present Constitution was written in three days less than three months, from May 5 to Aug. 2, 1875. The Constitution of 1845, which was not adopted, was written in two months less three days. The Constitution of 1820 was written in five weeks.

The size of our constitutions have increased even more greatly than the length of time required in their preparation. While the Constitution of 1820 contained less than three hundred words, that of 1875, with its amendments, exceeds 75,000 words. The Constitution of the United States is not one-fifth as large as the Constitution of Missouri.

The increase in the length of constitutions has not been due to the increased complexity of the machinery of state government. The number of officials mentioned in and whose powers are defined by the Constitution of 1875 was less than in the Constitution of 1820, and greater than the number mentioned in the first Constitution of the State. The increase has come from the addition to the original instrument of almost innumerable restrictions upon the powers of the Legislature and of the subsequent addition of numerous exceptions to these restrictions. In the last two years, for example, nearly 10,000 words, the equivalent of the entire Constitution of 1820, have been added to the Constitution of Missouri, most of this mass of amendments being made up of exceptions to the limitations imposed by the Constitution on the power of the General Assembly of the State.

Shorter Instrument Unlikely.

It is not likely that the convention of 1922 will be able or inclined to present to the people a shorter instrument than we now have. The founders of Missouri may be extolled, but their example will not be followed.

SAYS COMMUNITY CHEST FUND

PLAN IS SUCCESSFUL IN DETROIT

Chairman, in Reply to St. Louis Council, States Donations Have Increased $1,310,000 Since 1918.

The community chest fund plan is successful, William J. Norton, chairman of the Detroit community chest, has written to Thomas C. Hendricks, chairman of the Community Chest's Committee on Community Chests, in answer to a letter of inquiry sent by the St. Louis body to cities, in which the plan has been tried.

The Detroit Community Fund, organized in 1918, has shown donations increased from $1,000,000 in that year to $2,310,000 in the last campaign, according to Norton's letter. The contributors have increased in number from 800 to 10,000. Virtually all of the 42 organizations working independently before 1918 are now receiving more than they did then, while 35 additional agencies are sharing in the relief funds, the letter says. Money from the Detroit "chest" is used only for current, and not building, expenses.

DAUGHERTY PLANS OVERHAULING
"DRY" ENFORCEMENT MACHINERY

Power Would Be Vested in Department of Justice, Attorney General Says.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

FORT PIERCE, Fla., March 14.—The prohibition enforcement machinery would be completely overhauled under a plan which Attorney General Daugherty has ready to submit to the President. This announcement was made by Daugherty when the houseboat on which the presidential party is cruising down the Indian River touched shore here yesterday.

Administration of the law would be vested in a bureau of the Department of Justice under the direction of a competent lawyer as Assistant Attorney General.

The new plan provides for a "practical, pronounced, positive effort" to enforce the law. Daugherty is this could be the duty of a lawyer of outstanding ability equipped to handle the legal phases of enforcement.

The office now held by Maj. Roy A. Haynes, head of the prohibition bureau, would be abolished. Although Haynes might be assigned to some executive position connected with enforcement work.

SUBCOMMITTEE FAVORS BIG SLASH IN NAVY

Would Cut Personnel to 65,000—President Against Any Reduction Below 80,000.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The naval subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee has decided to recommend a slash in the navy which, if carried out, will again range Congress in opposition to an expressed wish of the President.

Instead of the $350,000,000 requested for the navy for the next fiscal year by Secretary Denby, the subcommittee, under the chairmanship of Representative Kelley of Michigan, will propose an appropriation of $200,000,000. It will recommend that the personnel of the navy be cut to 65,000 from the present total of 100,000. This is a slash 15,000 greater than had been expected. It was recently made known at the White House that the President was opposed to a reduction below 80,000 on the ground that a lesser figure would make it impossible to maintain the navy at the ratio of strength fixed by the naval limitation treaty. High naval officials, as well as the President, have warned against a slash that would destroy the 5-5-3 ratio.

Under the plan of the naval subcommittee, the United States would maintain in commission 18 battleships, 103 destroyers, 84 submarines and a few auxiliary craft necessary to round out the establishment. On the ships proposed for retention there are now 52,000 men. This number would be cut to 50,000, while the number on shore duty would be reduced from 20,000 to 15,000.

The navy has 350 of the best destroyers in the world. The subcommittee, arriving at 103 as the number to be retained in commission went on the theory that it would reserve the ratio of 5-3 as between the United States and Japan, which is supposed to have 60 destroyers in active service.

Navy men, opposing this reduction, say the subcommittee failed to take into account the fact that Great Britain has more than 400 destroyers in active service and is building more. The naval treaty fixes no limitation on the number of destroyers that may be built.

Equally strong objection is made to the subcommittee's proposal to limit the navy to the 84 submarines that it now has. Many of these vessels are said to be of obsolete types, good only for coastwise service. Naval experts hold that the long coast lines of the United States make the submarine the logical weapon of defense—a weapon, moreover, whose value has been enhanced by the naval treaty limiting the number of capital ships.

AUTHORITY OF RAILWAY COMMISSION DEFINED

Supreme Court Holds Interstate Body Cannot Interfere With Strictly State Line.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The Interstate Commerce Commission was held yesterday by the Supreme Court without authority to authorize or compel abandonment of a strictly state railroad.

The decision, which was handed down in a case brought by the State of Texas against the Eastern Texas Railroad Co., to prevent that railroad from dismantling under an order issued by the commission, declared that where a railroad lies entirely within a single state, it is owned and operated by a corporation of that state, and is not a part of another line, and where its continued operation cannot be of more than local concern, the commission was without jurisdiction.

No Interstate Burden Exists.

"Interstate and foreign commerce will not be burdened or affected by any shortage in the earnings nor will any carrier in such commerce have to bear or make good the shortage of the Eastern Texas Railroad," Justice Vandevanter stated in delivering the opinion to which there was no dissent.

"It is not as if the road were a branch or extension whose unremunerative operation would or might burden the main line," he added, "and thereby affect its utility or service as an artery of interstate and foreign

"LAST WALTZ" PROVES
MORE MUSICAL COMEDY

Operetta of Strauss Broadway-ized in Music and Book; Miss Painter the Star.

By RICHARD L. STOKES.

A NY lover of "The Chocolate Soldier" whom the name of Oscar Strauss has become into the Robert Jefferson Theater this week, is destined to a savage disenchantment. "The Last Waltz" put forward under the name of Austria's most fastidious artist in operetta, proves to be a musical comedy of the same breath even with "A Waltz Dream" between it and its two predecessors, the abyss which separates civilized art from barbaric show.

Had the hand of Strauss lost its cunning, or did he sit himself cynically down to fabricate a potboiler for those "idiotic but wealthy Yanks"? Certainly the anemic featured song, "The Last Waltz," is an opening phrase from the "Merry Widow" waltz, has little of the authentic accent of the musician who composed "My Hero." And would the genuine Strauss, with his inextinguishable invention, have resorted to "Madame Butterfly" for the characteristic strains of his principal duet and finale, "Fading Golden Love Dream?"

The true story is no doubt revealed in these lines from the program book: "Additional music by Al Goodman; book and lyrics by Harold Atteridge and Edward De Lany Dunn." Just what degradation the Strauss of the Rialto and their hacks have committed upon the original it is impossible to say. The program refrains from identifying Goodman's interpolations in the score; and an attempt to obtain the partition in New York met with the answer from the publishers controlling the music that the score has not been published and will not be.

"Americanizing" an Operetta. One may easily surmise, however, the "production" which some New York managers would have inflicted upon "The Chocolate Soldier," had there been no published score and libretto by which to check them. In the hands of the Strauss, the operetta was converted into one of those preposterous Americans—probably an army officer—who in romances range about Europe, outwitting chancellors, slaying kings, and delivering princesses from distress. He would be attended by some buffoon of a doughty with india-rubber legs, a heat like a goat and an assortment of state Broadway wheezes.

Cap. Massakoff, his Bulgarian aide, would be compelled to perform a dance while searching Nadina's chamber for Bumerli; and the lullaby sung by the three women over the sleeping fugitive would inevitably give occasion for a ballet of the Strauss. And as for the "Letter Song"—what sort of a lover's quarrel is this? Send for Irving Berlin to tip up the music; let the sweethearts end in a clinch.

What appear to be fossils from the original book are embedded in the work's present formation, and there are also passages of music which it is impossible to believe any virtuoso of the Strauss could have written. We must fancy that Strauss was responsible for these; but one listened almost in vain for a flash of his brilliant melodic gift, and particularly for his elegance of craftsmanship in harmony.

Settings Are Opulent. Such amends as are possible are attempted in the settings and in a few of the cast. The three scenes, showing two drawing rooms and a ball room in palace and a ball room in the Balkan kingdom, are of similar spectacles of decor would be in the most lavish of revues. The company is a large one and the changes are tolerably and sometimes handsomely costumed.

Miss Eleanor Painter, prima donna of the troupe, is, of course, charming in the heroine's role, and, owing to her classical training, she has good chance of rivalry among the best leading women in light opera. She is slender, light and lithe; and in incidents of coquetry she acts with delicate archness. In the play's moments of pathos she is far from convincing; the sort of eloquence which affects "at your command—oh," and "offer it to him—oh." She wears many very decorative gowns.

The leading man is Walter Woolf, who reduces in stature, pulchritude and an excellent voice. The principal comedian is Eddie Nelson, whose dancing, antics and gags one needs to remember in one of the "Lester, Lester" companies. Harry Pender, a former St. Louisan, is a good-looking and amiable juvenile; and good song and dance with Eleanor Griffith, playing an ingenue siren, to a composed tune, was found by last night's audience one of the most pleasant incidents of the show.

It is not often, as in "The Chocolate Soldier," that a composer has a raw for librettist; and it seems probable that the original book of "The Last Waltz" even before it secured "Americanization," was of no great distinction. The librettists, the plot concerns a Lieutenant of the American Navy who has the misfortune to interrupt a tete-a-tete between the Prince Regent of Sardinia and a pretty Countess; for which he is thrown into jail and sentenced, with small regard for international complications, to death.

The heroine enables him to escape, but he returns, in fear of unpleasant results for her. The Countess is carried off to the Prince Regent's castle, where the Countess, with a whip, the Countess, persuading him that he requires

"LITERATURE" INVADERS
VARIETIES AT ORPHEUM

Playlets After De Maupassant, Dunsany and O. Henry Cautiously Insulated.

The terror with which some producers venture to present in vaudeville even a hint of men who really know how to write, is illustrated in an act called "Highlowbrow," on this week's Orpheum bill. William Halligan had the excellent idea of offering tabloid versions of stories by De Maupassant and O. Henry, and of a play by Lord Dunsany.

Instead of undertaking the thing in a dignified and straightforward way, he found it advisable to envelope the bitter pill of literature in a coating of absurdity and vulgarity. Two friends are talking over the telephone, chiefly, of course, in gaudy, about bootlegging. One of them, refusing an invitation to a moonshine party, confesses with a certain shame that he prefers to stay home and read.

In reply to the jeers of the others, he offers to bet $100 that he can relate three stories from books of such a "fascinating character" that his friend will not hang up the telephone until they are finished. His report is made, and the three plays are put on the strain being relieved after each by riddles, riddles changed over the wire, some of them on the utmost verge of decency.

The playlets are "Requiem," after De Maupassant; "The Guest," from Lord Dunsany; and "The Gifts of the Magi," after O. Henry. In the first an aged man and woman, meeting on the street, recognize each other as the youth and girl who years ago had sat together on the bank of the Seine. "If I had asked you for your love," he says, "would you have yielded?" "Yes," replies the crone, and passes on.

Dunsany's "The Guest."
In the second a man enters a restaurant where he has ordered supper for two; when the waiter leaves he begins telling an invisible personage in the opposite chair how he has been crossed in love. He swallows poison and falls to the floor; a physician, feeling his lifeless pulse, announces that the guest has arrived.

The third is from a familiar story by O. Henry, in which a brakeman and his wife give each other Christmas presents. She has sold her hair to buy him a watch chain, and it turns out that he has pawned his watch to buy her a side comb. Halligan has the assistance of four others in this skit.

The featured act on the bill is that of Mildred Harris, a movie actress who is advertised as the divorced wife of Charlie Chaplin. She is making her first venture on the speaking stage, an incredible playlet called "Getting the Money." Mildred Harris wears some expensive clothes, and makes her eyes roll and stare according to the approved technique of the camera.

An extraordinarily good turn in wire-dancing is presented by Nellie and Josephine Jordan, who open the show. Fred Bernard and Sid Garry, in black face, attempt impersonations of Jolson, Cantor and Leonard; one of them whoops out a song like a steam locomotive. Jim Toney does funny falls and antics in a skit called "You Know What I Mean," with Ann Norman. Stan Stanley and two assistants have one of those turns in which the audience discovers sitting in the audience, and does most of his work in the aisles. Johannes Josefson and a troupe demonstrate Iceland's strenuous act of self-defense, called "Gliding." This exhibition has long been familiar in the circus.

Voters of foreign birth are urged to vote "Yes" and scratch "No" on the proposed continuation of a tax of 85 cents on the $100 valuation for the maintenance of the public schools, at the special election March 28, in the following appeal by Gus V. R. Mechin, president of the National Foreign-Born Voters' League:

Realizing that our public schools are the cornerstone of our American Government, and that education is the foundation upon which Americanism is built, and fully appreciating the benefits of sound democratic schools where rich and poor meet on the same level and as equals, receiving the same attention and teachings, and believing that we foreign-born Americans should prove our gratitude at the privilege in this, our adopted country, the mother of the free public school, I would therefore call on you and ask the Americans of foreign birth to express their thanks to their adopted home land by voting "Yes" at the school tax election March 28. Don't fail to go to the polls and vote "Yes." If you stay home and do not vote "Yes," you will fail to do your duty as Americans. Let us show that we are loyal to the Stars and Stripes by standing by our public schools, the bulwark of American freedom and liberty. Be sure that you and your friends scratch "No."

Major-General Harris to Be Retired.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Application of Major-General Peter C. Harris, Adjutant-General of the Army, for retirement at the expiration of his present detail in August, has been approved, and the War Department announces that Col. Robert C. Davis will be appointed to succeed Gen. Harris as Adjutant-General.

COSTS NEW YORK GIRLS

THEMSELVES, THEY SAY

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 14.—It costs New York girls, at the least, $250 annually to clothe themselves properly, members of the League of Girls' Clubs announced today.

A recent report of the findings of Topeka merchants declared that about $82 was sufficient dress allowance for a working girl. Chicago girls later reported they could dress properly on $117 annually.

RUMORED THAT YOUNGER SON OF KING GEORGE IS TO MARRY

(Copyright, 1932.)

LONDON, March 14.—Reports persist that another royal engagement will soon be announced here. The Evening Standard says in this connection:

"Talk is quite persistent in high circles that we shall shortly hear officially that one of the younger sons of the King is engaged to be married."

This evidently refers to the Duke of York, who was reported some time ago to be engaged to Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, who was one of Princess Mary's bridesmaids. The report was subsequently officially denied. The report that the Queen of Rumania is to bring her daughter Ileana to London when she visits Queen Mary soon has made gossip busy about a possible alliance between the British and Rumanian royal houses.

The Queen of Rumania is King George's cousin, being the daughter of his uncle, the late Duke of Edinburgh.

Wife Says Strange Sleep Is Result of Disease Contracted While Stationed in Orient.

By the Associated Press.

DALLAS, Tex., March 14.—Chinese pinkeye poison partly removed at Shanghai, but persisting in his eye.

tem to some extent, together with an attack of influenza, sent the Rev. H. W. Burwell, Dallas Presbyterian evangelist, into a six-days' stupor. Yesterday he was awake and apparently normal. Last Tuesday he went directly to his room after conducting a revival in Lubbock, Tex., and fell into a slumber. When roused for dinner he went to the table and there entered into a strange sleep, which hung over him until yesterday.

his wife returned from the Orient, where he contracted Chinese pinkeye.

"He is unaware that he has been sleeping almost continuously for a whole week," Mrs. Burwell declared.

How To Avoid INFLUENZA

Nothing you can do will so effectively protect you against the influenza or Grippe epidemic as keeping your organs of digestion and elimination active and your system free from poisonous accumulations. Doctors and health authorities everywhere are warning people of the danger of constipation, and advising, and urging everyone to see that the bowels and other eliminative organs act freely and regularly. Ordinary laxatives, purges and cathartics, salts, oils, calomel and the like, are good enough to clean out the system, but do not strengthen the weakened organs; they do not build up vitality. Why don't you begin right today to overcome constipation and get your system in such shape that you can feel reasonably sure of resisting disease. You can do so if you will just get a 25c. box of Nature's Remedy (NR) Tablets and take one each night for a while. NR Tablets do much more than merely cause pleasant, easy bowel action. This medicine acts upon the digestive as well as eliminative organs, promotes good digestion, causes the body to get the nourishment from all the food you eat, gives you a good, hearty appetite, strengthens the liver, comes biliousness, regulates kidneys and bowel action and gives the whole body a thorough cleaning out. One of these frocks, or costume as they are called, are not too far from two different sorts of materials and they are really the most interesting of all. You will see a dress of gray, and then a dress of violet silk with its upper half composed of gray, and then a dress of gray with its lower half composed of violet. The colors of the silks will be of this and that variety so that the weave of the dress will be of the same color, and the colors have a way of sinking into each other with a toning that is quite charming.

One of these knitted suits was a dress, really, made of a coral colored knitted silk with stripes of light tan running through it to make a border. The border, naturally, formed the edge of the skirt and then it also appeared again on the bottom of the cape, which was made quite long and voluminously full.

Another knitted suit had a skirt and a short coat made with kimono sleeves and the color scheme was a happy combination of green and tan.

The little jacket managing sweetly to have the tan stripes run around the edges of the sleeves and the collar.

The Heart of a Girl

A Story of Romance and a Business Career in St. Louis
By Caroline Crawford

OVER THE TEA CUPS.

CHAPTER 86.

IT was twilight when Peggy and Billy reached her home after their stroll in Forest Park Sunday afternoon. Billy had but an hour before leaving for Chicago. They had been very happy that afternoon and Peggy wanted to do all in her power to make this last hour of Billy's in town one which he might remember. Her father was stricken with the influenza, so that the usual Sunday night luncheon was abandoned, but in her heart Peggy rejoiced that it would not be a family affair. It would be so much more effective to have just a tete-a-tete tea.

Instead of switching on the electric light when they entered the living room Peggy lighted four huge candles, two upon the mantelpiece and two upon an old-fashioned mahogany card table. This gave a softness to the room and produced just the quiet, happy atmosphere which she wished.

Then she tossed Percy Peterson's volume of Hindu poems to Billy, placed a candlestick on a tabourette next to his chair and hustled out into the kitchenette to see what she could pick up.

Billy lighted his pipe and slipped the little book of poems back on the table unopened. He smiled to himself as he thought of Peggy hustling about the tiny kitchen, running to and fro from the kitchen to the cake box, preparing a meal for him.

"Peggy is a flapper," he told himself, "she flaps as much as any modern girl in her teens, but back of it all she has a deep domestic interest, she prides herself upon her many culinary stunts."

"The only thing is," mused Billy in his reverie, "that the modern girl is a deal harder to woo. In the old days Peggy would not have been allowed to go to business, she would have been dependent upon dad. Now, because she gets a salary of $20 or so a week, she is taking her time about marriage. And yet, in the park this afternoon, when I asked her if she felt as if our friendship weren't different and that somehow we couldn't do without each other, she said: 'I do, Billy.' If she feels that way—then!"

Peggy was pushing a tea tray toward him. She wore a pink and white checked bungalow apron and her face was rosy with work and the heat of the kitchenette rather than from her vanity box.

Jack Reed would have said, "My word, Peg, but you look sweet and

Fashion News Notes

LONDON.—Sartorial echoes of the Princess Mary wedding are not likely to cease for some time. The bride-maids' gowns are being extensively copied for dance frocks. The original gowns were of silver cloth, frosted, over ivory satin with graceful drapes of silver lace and a bunch of silver flowers at the left side of the girdle. This gown is being copied in a variety of colors, since the recent revolt of London's young people against all white or all black evening costumes. A particularly effective moleskin cloak worn by Princess Mary is being copied in satin for evening wear. One of its striking features is a deep shawl collar.

PASADENA, Cal.—Printed voiles are among the prime favorites for hot weather wear. Their popularity is to be greater than for many years and they are made in fascinating color combinations. Quaint flower sprig patterns are a feature of this sheer and cool-looking fabric, one beige voile having tiny love knots of forget-me-nots and rosebuds in blue and magenta. Yellow or orange with white is a smart combination. Most of the voile gowns are made on simple lines, but the majority of them have side panels and uneven hems.

There, isn't that quick work? asked Peggy, as she poured a cup of tea for Billy and coyly asked, "Lemon or cream?"

"Now try my club sandwiches," she coaxed, as she offered him two, daintily toasted bits of bread between which was a lettuce leaf, a slice of chicken, bacon and a slice of tomato.

There in the candle light, over a cup of tea, Peggy and Billy smiled and talked to their hearts' content. They managed to stretch that hour into a very happy one, an hour which would always linger in their memories.

"Do you know what I have been playing?" asked Billy when he discovered that he had but just 10 minutes left, "do you know what I have been thinking as we sat here—just you and I?"

"Don't keep me guessing, tell me," smiled Peggy.

"I have been pretending that some day this will come to us, this quietude of the home life, this hour when you and I will be shut out from the jazz of life and the rest of the world."

"So have I!" confessed Peggy.

Billy looked into Peggy's eyes and instead of a flapperish twinkle he saw the complacent smile of the girl he admired.

Next—Peggy Analyzes Her Heart.

A Woman's Right to Know the Truth about Mattresses

BUYING mattresses in the past has been pretty much a matter of assuming that all's clean that looks clean. Sometimes that was true—but often not. And it is your right to know the facts.

Many a woman has bought a "new" mattress filled with old, "renovated" material. Shocking to think about. Unsafe to use.

That's why Simmons has taken such an uncompromising stand for only clean, new, sanitary materials in mattress making.

So now a standard of unquestionable purity is established. The Simmons Label on a mattress can be relied upon to identify mattresses of pure, fresh, new kapok or cotton. Built for Sleep.

Each mattress delivered in a sealed carton roll—unhandled, clean, sanitary.

HOW TO BEAT THE SYSTEM

"TINY" MAXWELL is a sporting writer in Philadelphia. He is called "Tiny" because he is about the size of a two-ton tractor. He has a ready wit, as his readers will testify.

Because he is an expert at football and also because back in his college days he was a gridiron star of magnitude, Mr. Maxwell frequently is called upon in the season to referee games along the Eastern seaboard.

One afternoon last fall he was officiating at a match between Georgetown, which, as everybody knows, is a Catholic institution, and a team representing a Southern university. In an interval one of the Southern players limped up to Maxwell.

"Mr. Referee," he said, "I want to make a protest. There's one of those Georgetown men that seems to have a private grudge against me. Every time we two get in a scrimmage together he bites me. Yes, sir, he just hauls off and bites me. I don't want to start any rough-house stuff, but I'm getting tired of having that big Irishman biting on me. What had I better do?"

"I should advise," said Tiny, "that you play him only on Fridays."

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

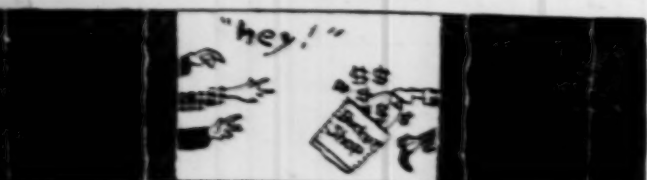

EASY COME, EASY GO!

Rothvogel built up a grocery trade. With the help of his kids and his wife. At fifty he fancied the stake he had made. Would last him the rest of his life. He'd handled molasses and sugar and soap. Till the sweat had bespangled his brow. And therefore he took a delight in the hope That things would be easier now.

But Rothvogel wasn't quite satisfied yet. He wanted to make one last haul. So he put all he had on a bucket-shop bet— And now he has nothing at all!

Cassidy carried the hod twenty years. He started when still a young lad. It wasn't exactly the king of careers. But still it was all that he had. He saved up a dollar or two now and then— His needs were but trifling and few— And counted his money again and again. When the day's occupation was through. To knock off at six was Cassidy's plan. But alas, it was of little avail. For he trusted his cash to a bucket-shop man Who spent it—to keep out of jail.

Hardscrabble wrested his bread from the soil. He rose every morning at dawn And put his time in at the hardest of toil Till the last streak of daylight was gone. He plowed and he harrowed and watered the stock. The turkeys and chickens he fed. He kept at his chores until eleven o'clock. Then he wearily fell into bed. At last, in wartime, when prices were high. The wealth he had been toiling for came: It came—and it left in the flash of an eye. When he tackled the bucket-shop game!

MUCH TOO MUCH. SEE MARKET REPORTS. The ex-Kaiser, appealed to relieve the sufferings of Germany, sent newspapers that food prices are now down 20 per cent. This, however, is merely headline news people's hearts. A theory, not a condition.
